

1910 Census. Alter, age 14, living with parents in Brooklyn, NY.

Parents: Louis, age 46, born Russia, occupation "Operator." Etta, age 45, born Russia. Etta is listed as having had 10 children of which 7 are alive. They had been married for 26 years. All members of the household are listed as Yiddish speakers. The Russia-born members of the household are also reported to speak English. Louis came to the U.S. in 1897. The other Russia-born members of the household came in 1903.

Ancestry.com says Etta's maiden name was Helfant. (A Benjamin "Yelphat [?]," age 26, single, occupation "worker," is listed as living with the family as a "lodger" who arrived in the U.S. from Russia in 1905. Possibly a misspelling of Helfant and thus possibly a relative of Etta.)

Children in household:

Pauline, age 25, born Russia, occupation paid “Operator,” listed as married 5 years. But no husband is reported in the household.

Rose, age 20, born Russia, occupation paid "Operator"

Israel, age 18, born Russia, occupation “Machinist” at a “fur maker”

Alter, age 14, born Russia

Nathan, age 5, born New York

Max, age 3, born New York

Sophia, age 2, born New York
